As a Starbank student I aim to:

- attend school every day and on time unless I have a valid reason
- take pride in my appearance and wear uniform correctly
- bring basic equipment and the correct books to school every day
- take responsibility for my own learning, ensuring that all targets set are met to the best of my abilities
- follow staff expectations
- develop study skills by recording and completing home learning and handing it in on time
- ask my parents/carers to check and sign my planner each week
- treat everyone fairly and with respect, acknowledging that your behaviour will lead to consequences
- let a member of staff or someone at home know if I have any worries
- ensure proper and safe use of the school ICT systems as described in the Acceptable Usage Policy for ICT
- NOT use any mobile device (phone, mp3 player, games console etc.) on school premises
